Ken distributed his latest member draft list. All members have been signed up for at least one chapter team. When members didn't express a preference, they were assigned to Community Activities. Ken will pass out the member draft sheets at today's luncheon. His next priority will be to get the mentoring program underway by helping match junior folks with senior FMers.

April Chapel provided budget and RPDS updates. The RPDS registration fee will be $150 and the registration website will be up and running in mid-January. The team is doing a great job and we expect a much better turnout this year, since the event is on a Thursday.

Capt Spaulding and Sheila Hale provided Community Activities updates. Volunteer turnout has been great so far. We will need to be thinking about our involvement in future opportunities, such as the Relay For Life. Next volunteer opportunity is helping Ways & Means at the BX Christmas gift wrapping booth at Eglin. Jennifer Denega will update us on time slots.

Ron Millis discussed the EDFMT (CDFM prep class); registration numbers look solid and we expect the vast majority of registrants to be Gulf Coast Chapter members.

Ken recommended the Exec Council host & staff this year's chapter Christmas Luncheon at the Eglin West Gate Chapel Annex. The members agreed and will plan/execute the 12 Dec event. The event will be arranged to permit members to do "touch and go" visits if needed.

The meeting was adjourned at approximately 1100.
